NEWS FROM THE SUBURBS.
THE WORK OF MABEE AND ENGLISH.
The activity of the temperance workers in Montclair, N. J., has been mainly devoted during the last week to preparations for the systematic Reform club work. The club work is to be opened to the public. The women in the community have been their assistance in the committee, and the alterations in the building have been rapidly carried on. In the meantime a coffee-house has been opened in Morris Hall, over the Post-Office. Temperance meetings have also been held from time to time. A mass-meeting is to be held in Montclair Hall, on Thursday evening. The evening of the service will be held in the Congregational Church, where the Rev. Dr. George H. Hepworth will speak.

The temperance work has been systematically carried on by the Roman Catholic portion of the community. Members of the Church of the Immaculate Conception were called last week to a supper, and a three-day service will be held in the church. The Catholic Temperance Guild of Montclair, Father Meadi, of the local church, was chosen to administer by him, which binds the signers for only one year. There is talk, however, of organizing a Reform club exclusively for the parishioners of this church.

The Citizens' Committee of One Hundred during the early part of the week presented Messrs. Mabee and English with a check for $200, in token of the esteem of the people of Montclair.

The work of Mabee and English in Bloomfield, which was concluded on Thursday, is being carried on vigorously by the Reform Club and the Young Men's Christian Association. A large meeting of the club was held in Library Hall on Friday evening, and a mass meeting is to be held in the present church this afternoon. There are at present thirty-three grocers in Bloomfield, and a strong effort will be made by the club to reduce the number of licenses.

MAHONEY'S DEATH STILL UNEXPLAINED.
The mystery surrounding the burning of the Railroad Hotel at Springfield, N. J., and the death of John Mahoney, who was killed in the fire, is still unsolved. It is the topic of conversation everywhere, and the promise that it has given to that little village seems to be appreciated by the town people. Thomas Barry, the proprietor of the hotel, was seen by a Tribune reporter yesterday.

He said, "I can't tell what I know until I go before the coroner's jury. Mrs. Purdy, who lives in the corner of the hotel, said that she was awakened, and upon going to the window of her room, saw flames just beginning to come out of a large window. She called to the landlady, who told her to get out. She said that she was at least thirty feet from the spot where the furnace was located. She said that she was not in the hotel when the fire started. She said that she was not in the hotel when the fire started.
